About the author

Ms. Meredith Blake BA (Hons) Grad Dip (Mus Stud) has worked as the Secretary General of the Pacific Islands Museums Association (PIMA) since September 2005. She holds this position as a Volunteer for International Development from Australia, a volunteer program managed by AusAID. In May 2006 she oversaw the relocation of PIMA's Secretariat from its office in the Fiji Museum in Suva to its present home at the Vanuatu Cultural Centre in Port Vila.

Ms. Blake holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Anthropology and History from the University of Melbourne and a Graduate Diploma in Museum Studies from Deakin University. She is currently working towards a Masters Degree in Cultural Heritage also at Deakin University.

Previously she was Assistant Curator of the Art and Heritage Collection at the City of Port Phillip in Melbourne and Administration Officer for the professional association Museums Australia (Victoria). From 1999-2000 she worked in the Emergency Management Policy Unit at the Victorian Department of Justice. She has worked in a voluntary capacity with The National Trust of Australia (Victoria), the Jewish Museum of Australia and Museum Victoria.

Ms. Blake is a member of the Australian National Committee of ICOM and in 2005 joined the working group which established the Australian National Committee of the International Committee of the Blue Shield (ICBS) for the protection of cultural property in the event of disasters and armed conflict.
